WANTED.—STUDENTS! STUDENTS!!

This term is drawing fast toward a close and the winter term will soon open, when it is hoped that a large number of young people, anxious to improve their minds and for themselves to make the most of life will avail themselves of the opportunity of entering the Mt. Vernon Collegiate Institute.

That all classes of students may have the best facilities it is proposed to have more teachers added to the present corps, and to have a NORMAL COURSE opened for the benefit of teachers and all those who wish to prepare for this profession. Also a post-graduate course is being conceived, which will be duly opened for those who have already graduated from the Institute, if a sufficient number shall wish to enter this advanced course here, and by their patronage assist in building up the home institution rather than to spend their time and means elsewhere.

It is hoped that all the young people of the surrounding country and neighboring towns may have their attention called to their opportunities at Mt. Vernon. A course of reading on current topics is encouraged in connection to the regular studies. Also a paper setting forth the most important events is read by a student at the chapel exercises on Tuesday morning of each week. These papers are well prepared and are to appear in the SIGNAL. A regular course of Bible lessons is given in the chapel exercises. These assist all the students in gaining a clearer knowledge of the Word of God.

Vocal Music is taught and many of the pupils are learning with much interest to read the notes and sing accurately.

The Instrumental music is not in any way neglected and the number of students in this line is steadily increasing. Also in addition to the studies of the regular course, thorough training will be given to a class in elocution and reading, which will be of great value to teachers and all others who expect to appear or speak in public.

ATTENDANCE.

It is expected that the attendance will be very much increased at the opening of the winter term. Every teacher in the schools of the county is asked to do a good work in encouraging the young people of his district to come to Mt. Vernon. Also all teachers who wish a further course of preparation for their important work are asked to consider the advantage to be enjoyed at Mt. Vernon.

Although our fondly anticipated dormitory is not at present to be enjoyed, nevertheless there are many pleasant homes in which boarding can be obtained on very reasonable terms. But here is a novelty in this locality—why not "back" it? The young people from the farm homes of the surrounding country can secure rooms and board themselves at a merely nominal cost. Many of the presidents of our colleges and other men of note have worked their way through college; many have boarded themselves and used every laudable means to economize and keep at their studies. We believe that a great many students from the country could afford to attend the Collegiate Institute here if they only knew how cheaply they could live by boarding themselves. Let there be a general effort to awaken an interest in the education of our young people.

BEST LINIMENT ON EARTH.

I. M. McHany, Greenville, Tex., writes Nov. 2nd, 1900: "I had rheumatism last winter, was down in bed six weeks; tried everything, but got no relief, till a friend gave me a part of a bottle of Ballard's Snow Liniment. I used it, and got two more bottles. It cured me and I haven't felt any rheumatism since. I can recommend Snow Liniment to be the best liniment on earth for rheumatism." For rheumatic, sciatic or neuralgic pains, rub in Ballard's Snow Liniment, you will not suffer long, but will be gratified with a speedy and effective cure. 25c., 50c. and $1., at Chas. C. Davis.

We had the pleasure of calling on the big-hearted L. T. Stewart last Sunday. He took much interest in showing us his fine stock and farm products. Friend L. T. is well pleased with the products of his fertile soil and says that he can raise anything that soil will grow; even to babies. He says he can beat the State, having a three-year-old Democrat that is a fine specimen.

A DANGEROUS MONTH.

This is the month of coughs, colds and acute catarrh. Do you catch colds easily? Find yourself hoarse, with a tickling in your throat and an annoying cough at night? Then, you should always have handy, a bottle of Ballard's Horehound Syrup. J. A. Anderson, 354 West 5th St. Salt Lake City, writes: "We use Ballard's Horehound Syrup for coughs and colds. It gives immediate relief. We know its the best remedy for these troubles. I write this to induce other people to try this pleasant and efficient remedy." 25c, 50c and $1., at Chas. C. Davis.

A STARTLING SURPRISE.

Very few could believe in looking at A. T. Hoadley, a healthy, robust blacksmith of Tilden, Ind., that for ten years he suffered such tortures from Rheumatism as few could endure and live. But a wonderful change followed his taking Electric Bitters. "Two bottles wholly cured me," he writes, "and I have not felt a twinge in over a year." They regulate the Kidneys, purify the blood and cure Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Nervousness, improve digestion and give perfect health. Try them. Only 50cts. at all druggists.

Colds

"I had a terrible cold and could hardly breathe. I then tried Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and it gave me immediate relief."
W. C. Layton, Stidell, Ill.

How will your cough be tonight? Worse, probably. For it's first a cold, then a cough, then bronchitis or pneumonia, and at last consumption. Coughs always tend downward. Stop this downward tendency by taking Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

Three sizes: 25c., 50c., $1. All druggists. Consult your doctor. If he says take it, then do as he says. If he tells you not to take it, then don't take it. It's known to take it with him. We are willing. J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass.

H. H. HENNINGER,

Of Wayne county is a candidate for State Treasurer, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

We are authorized to announce the
HON. J. N. SHARP
As a candidate for Commonwealth's Attorney, subject to the action of the Republican party.

ABOUT the biggest republican in Kentucky to-day and the one who holds the most enviable position of them all is, Congressman Boreing of the "Bloody" Eleventh. Next March, the only great and illustrious Deboe will step down and out, to be succeeded by the Hon.
James B. McCreary and then there will be left only one Republican from Kentucky and in his hands will rest the entire Republican patronage of the State. If there is not much money left for the Judge, after he gets through making his race, he will, no doubt be perfectly contented with the honor alone, which he will get out of it this time.

GOVERNOR BECKHAM should be satisfied to step down and out. He has had honors and emoluments of office sufficient to satisfy any ordinary mortal and should not offer himself as a candidate in the race to come. He should let well enough alone and not tempt fate too far or he may later regret that his ambition led him to overstep reason and commonsense. Let the Governor keep his name out of the pot if he don't want to see it 'bile' over and put out the fire. James D. Black is the man of the hour and has done more for his party and people than any other to be found in a month of Sundays. Nominate Black and his election is assured.

ton's paper: "As usual the Somerset Republican is wrong. We did not say that Mr. O. H. Waddle went to the republican party for office. What we said was plain enough for any numbskull to understand except possibly Mr. Hansford. Having known Mr. Waddle for many years, and aware of his large law practice, we are surprised at his accepting office. Certainly from a financial standpoint he can not afford to do so."

THE LANCASTER RECORD, one of Kentucky's best weeklies, will be issued Friday's hereafter.
We wish Louis would issue his sheet daily.

TO THE REPUBLICAN VOT-ERS OF THE 28TH JU-DICIAL DISTRICT.

The candidacy of Judge Morrow and Mr. Shadcan for the judgeship of this judicial district developed such bitterness between their respective friends as to do incalculable harm to the Republican party.
To avoid such results these gentlemen have by mutual consent, and the consent of their respective friends as far as they could be consulted, withdrawn from the understanding that I would agree to announce my candidacy for that office. To do this involved a great personal sacrifice on my part from a business standpoint, and will entail on me official duties I neither sought or desired, but through the urgency of both of these gentlemen and their friends, I finally yielded to the demand to relieve the strained situation and prevent disruption in the party.

I am therefore a candidate subject to the action of the Republican Party, to be expressed in County and District Convention to be held on the 15th and 22nd days of November, 1902.

Entrusted with your banner I promise to carry it to victory, and to the people I guarantee a faithful and conscientious discharge of the high trust reposed in me.

Somerset, October 28, 1902.

Respectfully,

O. H. WADDLE.

Give every man a fair deal since you want one yourself.

Customer—You said this suit would wear like iron.

Clothier—Well, didn't it?

Customer—Too much so. It's getting rusty already.

May—Oh, I hate these magazine serials!

Edith—Why?

May—You can never tell how a story ends until it is finished.

J. Pierpont Morgan's earnings are 42 millions this year. Cheap enough. We would not undertake to own and run the world for a cent less.—Somerset Journal.

Ethel—What is more aggravating than a man who tells you of his love and never mentions matrimony?

Edith—Oh, a man who tells you of his money and never mentions matrimony.

According to an official report there were between January 1, 1901, and March 31, 1902, 1,844 strikes in Italy, involving 438,000 men.
Two-thirds of these strikes, organized by the socialists, resulted favorably to the men.

"You bear it like a little man," said the dentist, after he had pulled the tooth.

"Huh!" exclaimed Tommy, "I'm a heap grittier than that. I bear it like a little woman."

For Tommy was an observant boy.

"The Steam Auto—So you're using that thing to reduce your weight. I shouldn't think there would be sufficient exercise in it for that."

"No, but every time the water gets low I loose about five pounds expecting it to blow up."

"Yes," said Mrs. Cornstossel,
"the trusts has broke up our son, Josh."

"Did they crowd him out of business?"

"Yes. Josh says that a man with jes' a million or two of dollars doesn't stand any show against the monopolists, an' he might as well quit savin' up money."

Mabel—Poor Eliza! They say he married her for her money.

Tom—Well, he earned it.

Mr. Justwed—Shall I order anything for the house on my way to the office this morning, my dear?

Mrs. Justwed—Yes, love. Step at the grocery store and tell them to send up a five-pound bag of salt right away. And, George, tell them to be sure and see that it is fresh.

A writer in speaking of a Louisiana "cullud" person says: "The negro would butt anything that happened to cross him, and if he had ever had occasion I don't suppose he would have drawn the line on a billy goat, a ram or a bull.
The incident I have in mind convinced me that he would not draw the line. One morning he got out to the horse lot earlier than usual and was in a bad humor for some reason. He started to take his bad feeling out on the mule he was to plow with during the day. The first thing he did was to smash his water jug over the mule's head.
This did not hurt the mule so much and did not satisfy the negro. He was in one of his more, violent fits.
Grabbing the mule by the ears with each hand he pulled himself back a full arm's length and landed his head with great violence on the top of the mule's head. If the mule had been struck between the ears with an ax he would not have dropped to the ground more quickly. He fell like a dead ox. But he got up again. The negro was apparently satisfied after this and went on to the field. When it came to down-right heart-headedness he was the most remarkable member I ever saw."

There is a young bachelor not a thousand miles away who wants a nice housekeeper. He is extremely modest in his requirements; one who can cook to perfection, milk six cows, attend the garden and incidentally shuck a little corn for the hogs. Anyone knowing of such a girl will please let him know through the columns of THE DEMO-CRAT. P. S.—She must also be stylish and a good looker.—Winchester Democrat.

The girl who can do all the things which the bachelor above referred to mentions in his list of requirements for election to his good braces, is certainly a competent and convenient sort of a companion, but the girl who would do them deserves no better fate than to be hooked for life to just the sort of 18-karat villain as the gentleman referred to by THE DEMOCRAT. Of course Clark county will find it difficult to keep its maidens from brushing themselves up in that mad rush to seize this bargain-counter offer.—Lexington Leader.

STARTLING, BUT TRUE.

The promised boom in ginseng nursery stock was somewhat delayed, but it came to the Pulaski dealers like an avalanche during the past week or two. Orders for two-year-old roots first and yearling roots following thick and fast completely exhausted the stock to spare. The "Kentucky" and
"Cumberland Mountain" nurseries have also sold everything they will let go and the demand is yet continuous for more. These orders were from every section of the country where the reputation of our splendid nurseries has reached.
The smaller gardeners, nearly a hundred in number, scattered over this county, should take heart and push their enterprises with all possible earnestness and vigor. It is a solid fact that no one should question, that the ginseng industry of Pulaski county, now in its incipiency, will ere long become the leading industry of the county, making more money and faster than any other agricultural branch of business.—Somerset Journal.

H. H. HENNINGER,

Treasurer, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

We are authorized to announce the
As a candidate for 'Commonwealth's' Atorney, subject to the action of the Republican

ABOUT the biggest republican in
of the "Bloody" Eleventh. Next March, the only great and illustrious Deboe will step down and
out, to be succeeded by the Hon.
James B. McCreary and then there
will be left only one Republican
will rest the entire Republican
patronage of the State. If there is not much money left for the Judge,
contented with the honor alone,
time.

satisfied to step down and out. He
himself as a candidate in the race to
alone and not tempt fate too far or
he may later regret that his ambition led him to overstep reason and
put out the fire. James D. Black
is the man of the hour and has
month o' Sundays. Nominate Black and his election is assured.

set Republican is wrong. We did
enough for any numskull to understand except possibly Mr. Hans-
ed at his accepting office. Certain-

of Kentucky's best weeklies,
will be issued Friday's hereafter.
We wish Louis would issue his
sheet daily.

TO THE REPUBLICAN VOT- ERS OF THE 25TH JU- DICIAL DISTRICT.

and Mr. Snadon for the judgeship
such bitterness between their respective friends as to do incalculable harm to the Republican party.
To avoid such results these gentlemen have by mutual consent,
sulted, withdrawn with the under-
disruption in the party.

ject to the action of the Republi-
County and District Convention to be held on the 15th and 22nd days
of November, 1902.

Entrusted with your banner I
promise to carry it to victory, and to the people I guaranty a faith-
the high trust reposed in me.

Somerset, October 28, 1902.

Respectfully,

O. H. WADDLE.

you want one yourself.

Customer—You said this suit
would wear like iron.

Clothier—Well, didn't it?

getting rusty already.

serials!

story ends until it is finished.

J. Pierpont Morgan's earnings
less.—Somerset Journal.

ing than a man who tells you of
his love and never mentions matrimony?

matrimony.

According to an official report
there were between January 1, 1901,
and March 31, 1902, 1,844 strikes
in Italy, involving 438,000 men.
Two-thirds of these strikes, organized by the socialists, resulted
favorably to the men.

the tooth.

boy.

weight. I shouldn't think there
for that."

"No, but every time the water

"Yes," said Mrs. Cornstossel,
"the trusts has broke up our son, Josh."

business?"

doesn't stand any show against the
quit savin' up money."

he married her for her money.

Tom—Well, he earned it.

Mr. Justwed—Shall I order any-
the office this morning, my dear?

Mrs. Justwed—Yes, love. Step
fresh.

A writer in speaking of a Louisi-
happened to cross him, and if he
on a Billy goat, a ram or a bull.
The incident I have in mind convinced me that he would not draw
water jug over the mule's head.
This did not hurt the mule so much
was in one of his more violent fits.
ly. He fell like a dead ox. But

came to down-right hard headedness he was the most remarkable
member I ever saw."

six cows, attend the garden and
the hogs. Anyone knowing of
through the columns of THE DEMO-
stylish and a good looker.—Winchester Democrat.

ments for election to his good frances, is certainly a competent and convenient sort of a companion,
referred to by THE DEMOCRAT. Of
ter offer.—Lexington Leader.

"If every one knew what a grand medicine Dr. King's New Life Pills is," writes Dr. H. Turner, Dempseytown, Pa., "you'd sell all you have in a day. Two weeks' use has made a new man of me." Infallible for constipation, stomach and liver troubles. 25c. at all druggists.

The promised boom in ginseng
nursery stock was somewhat delayed, but it came to the Puleski dealers like an avalanche during the
pletely exhausted the stock to
spare. The "Kentucky" and
let go and the demand is yet con-
splendid nurseries has reached.
hundred in number, scattered over this country, should take heart and push their enterprises with all pos-
tion, that the ginseng industry of Puleski county, now in its incipi-
leading industry of the county, mak-
business.—Somerset Journal.

TO THE TAX-PAYERS OF ROCKCASTLE COUNTY:

I or one of my deputies will be at Green Proctor's store on Friday Nov. 21, 1902, and at Brodhead Saturday Nov. 22; at Livingston Thursday Nov. 20, and Saturday Nov. 22, 1902. I want to say now that this will be my last call. Your taxes are long past due, and if your taxes are not paid on or before the first day of December I will be compelled and will levy to collect. I do not want to collect your taxes by restraint but will do so if you force me. The Auditor must be settled with, and the claims against the county have to be paid and it takes money to settle them.

BOYS.—Bring us iron; all kinds scrap iron; will pay you 25cts. per hundred. HOOK & ADAMS, John Nevius and Warren Hughes came up from Stanford, Wednesday, to try to arrange a game of foot-ball with our boys for Thanksgiving, but on their arrival it was found that a game for an earlier date could be played, and it was decided to have the game about 11 o'clock that night in the lobby of the Miller Hotel. Proprietor Hugh Miller was center rush and Messrs. Hughes and Nevius played the part of right and left tackle. The Thanksgiving game was indefinitely postponed.

R. W. Cole, traveling salesman and also secretary of the Common Sense Oil Co., of Knox county, was here Tuesday and told us that his company now had a deal on hand to get a lease on 100 acres of land lying between the Wages and Jones gushers, which means that they will pretty sure strike some oil, if they carry through the deal. Backed up by the leading men of Barbourville, with hustling Bob Cole to push it, we may expect good reports from the Common Sense Oil and Gas Co.

Judge J. C. Chenault recently came into possession of an old deed which was given four years before Kentucky became a State. The old patent is on sheepskin and is dated Jan. 16, 1788. It was made in favor of Catlett Conway, giving him, "to have and hold," one thousand seven hundred and eighty-five acres of land, lying on Rockcastle river in Lincoln county, Ky. The document bears the signature of Edmund Randolph third governor of the Commonwealth of Virginia. The land lies in what is now Rockcastle county and is owned by the Big Hill Coal Company.—Richmond Climax.

In a box within circuit clerks office here are still resting the bones of James S. Millis, placed there more than twenty years ago, after being exhibited in a trial of persons charged with his murder, in Pulaski county, about the close of the war, 1864. The bones had remained in a cave for a long time before being discovered and later brought to Mt. Vernon as "mute witness of a murder in the long ago." A letter from Whitley county making inquiries in the case was received here a few days since recalled the circumstances of the clerks office having given sepulture to Millis' bones for nearly a quarter of a century.

IN MEMORY.

Whereas, Milton H. Purdom, a member of the Mt. Vernon Tent, No. 21, of the Knights of the Macabees, lost his life Aug. 25, 1902, in a wreck on the Louisville Southern Railroad, while in the performance of his duties as an employee on said road, and while in the vigor of youthful manhood; therefore be it resolved:

1st.—That in his death the Order of the Knights of Macabees has lost a member, who was conscientious and courageous; his aged parents a son, who, regardless of the hurry of business, took time to manifest to them his love and devotion; his brothers and sisters, a brother, who was at all times, and under all circumstances, agreeable and affectionate.

2nd.—That, in this hour of sadness and affliction, the bereaved parents, brothers and sisters have the full sympathy of this Tent and the beneficent Order of which the deceased was a member.

3rd.—That a copy of these resolutions be published in the Mt. Vernon SIGNAL, and that a copy be put of record on the minutes of the Mt. Vernon Tent of the Knights of Macabees, and that a copy be mailed to the parents of the deceased.

TO THE PUBLIC.

To whom this may concern:
As we see a piece in the last week's SIGNAL from A. C. Sowder, of Level Green, concerning Eld. J. L. Davis accusing him of being a "hypocrite, scoundrel and falsifier and unworthy the confidence or respect of all decent people," we the Elders and Deacons of the church of Christ, at Providence, deem it our duty as Bro. Davis has been preaching here two years and commenced on his third year, to say that the above charges are untrue and cannot be proven.

Sunday night as Policeman Henry McDonald, of Barbourville, was walking along Main street he accidentally snapped a pair of nippers which he had in his pocket. To his surprise a man who stood leaning against a building suddenly wheeled around and cried: "All right, Captain, I'll go with you. I have been expecting this ever since I escaped from prison." It took the policeman some time to recover from his surprise, but recovering his presence of mind, replied: "All right, then, come along to jail." On his way to the station the man confessed that he had been sent up three years from Fleming county for housebreaking and after serving six months of his sentence broke through the guard and escaped. The man gave his name as Chap Gee. The authorities at Frankfort were telegraphed and yesterday the local authorities received word to hold Gee until a deputy could reach Barbourville. Gee was standing with his back to the policeman as he came along and thought the noise made my the nippers clasp together was the click of a pistol in the policeman's hands. It is understood the reward for Gee's arrest is $100.

Consumption

Salt pork is a famous old-fashioned remedy for consumption. "Eat plenty of pork," was the advice to the consumptive 50 and 100 years ago.

Salt pork is good if a man can stomach it. The idea behind it is that fat is the food the consumptive needs most.

Scott's Emulsion is the modern method of feeding fat to the consumptive. Pork is too rough for sensitive stomachs. Scott's Emulsion is the most refined of fats, especially prepared for easy digestion.

Feeding him fat in this way, which is often the only way, is half the battle, but Scott's Emulsion does more than that. There is something about the combination of cod liver oil and hypophosphites in Scott's Emulsion that puts new life into the weak parts and has a special action on the diseased lungs.

A sample will be sent free upon request.
Be sure that this picture in the form of a label is on the wrapper of every bottle of Emulsion you buy.
